Proposal to attract Japanese electronics firms

1661. SHRI KAPIL VERMA:
SHRIMATI VEENA VERMA:
SHRI RAMSINH RATHWA:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to attract large Japanese electronics firms to start their units in India;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) whether Japanese firms have demanded changes in industrial policy to facilitate the setting up of their units in India?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA): (a) to (c) The Statement on Industrial Policy dated 24th July, 1991 has recognised the need for a more dynamic relationship between domestic and foreign industry in terms of both technology and investment. This applies to large Japanese electronic firms also. Japanese firms have not demanded any specific changes in the Industrial Policy of India.

Bogus computer training institutions

1662. SHRI KAPIL VERMA:
SHRIMATI VEENA VERMA:
SHRI RAMSINH RATHWA:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that a large number of computer training institutions are making various claims about their training courses;

(b) if so, whether there is a proposal for standardisation of their courses;

(c) whether the Department of Electronics would accredit these institutions;

(d) whether any complaint has been received about some of the claims of these institutions being bogus or misleading; and

(e) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) The Government of India, Department of Electronics vide Resolution, dated 16th August, 1990, have announced a scheme under which private sector computer training institutes meeting the defined quality and service standards would be given accreditation for conducting certain specified courses viz. O (Foundation). A (Advance Diploma). B (Graduate) and C (Post Gradudate) levels computer courses.

(d) and (e) There have been a few instances of inflated claims being made by the institutions which have been given accreditation under the scheme. Such institutions have been/are being directed to rectify their advertisements etc. in this regard. Some of them have already responded while others are in the process of doing so.
